

New dinner show at Wallmans a real knockout for the senses

No one in Copenhagen – or anywhere else in Denmark – offers such a unique combination of international showmanship, solid entertainment, superb food, great cocktails, diverse bars, stand-up comedy, and night club as Wallmans. And it's all under one roof – the magical dome of the Circus Building in Copenhagen. In fact, it can be quite a breath-taking experience to enter the huge dome-shaped building which since 1886 has housed some of Copenhagen's most popular shows – shows that so many generations of Copenhageners flocked to.

Sixth successful year in the Circus Building

The new season at the Circus Building is no exception. With the terrific new show "Kapow" which opens on August 20th, audiences can expect the unexpected. A surprising and extraordinary evening that is guaranteed to be unlike any other," says Wallmans' Sales and Marketing Manager Danielle Eliassen with an impish smile. The excitement takes off from the moment Wallmans singers welcome guests as they are being shown to their tables. High up under the dome, artists start singing their serenades, accompanied by guitar and piano. "And this is just the beginning of a total experience that is a real knockout for the senses," says Eliassen.

"Kapow" – a terrific new dinner show

This is the sixth year in a row that Wallmans Dinner Show in the Circus Building presents a unique, full-throttle dinner show. This year, the show's concept is called "Kapow"! And according to Eliassen, it is yet another fantastic show with Danish and international artists who will simply knock audiences off their feet with their captivating performance.

Pop till you drop!

Audiences can look forward to a dizzying rollercoaster ride that takes them through everything from music, song and dance to insane humour. The dance number "Time" is an impressive stunt show that leads the audience into a world of avantgarde set design and sumptuous costumes. "The Girls" recreates the best beats from the 80s and 90s so it's impossible to sit still. And the number "The Boys" presents a British invasion of solid pop numbers that is sure to make audiences sing so the dome is about to lift off the Circus Building.

Dizzying and satisfying

"The Circus Building's famous duo Jecko and Jessie will either make people laugh themselves silly as they take the audience right to the edge – or make people gasp for breath when they do their acrobatic numbers high up under the dome," says Eliassen. Besides all this, there is such a wonderful "feel good" atmosphere when the company's great dancers and singers perform in typical Broadway style to the tones of the Big Band. And to make sure everyone feels like dancing all night long, the artists deliver some of the greatest dance hits of all time from the world's biggest pop queen – Madonna.

A royal finale

And the grand finale is no less than the revival of a royal classic. An explosive nostalgic revival of undying rock numbers spiced up with sumptuous costumes that will bring tears to everyone's eyes.... "Ladies and Gentlemen, Wallmans in the Circus Building is proud to present the most famous of the famous – THE QUEEN!"
